30 East 38th Street Tax Block/Lot # 867-48

Two five-story row houses combined and converted to apartment use, with new front façade (George G. Miller, 1951-52, for builder Jacob Feder). Brick-faced modern five-story apartment building, with simplified Georgian detail at the entry. The original No. 30 belonged to William Schaus, “well-known importer of and dealer in works of art” (NYT). Source: ALT 851-42, ALT 1321-51; NYT 12/30/1892 p. 2.
