

Park Avenue @38th Street South East corner

59-65 Park Avenue (R.C. Church of Our Saviour and Rectory), aka 102 East 38th Street
Tax Block/Lot #893/92

Four Story neo-Romanesque church, built 1955 (Paul C. Reilly), faced in stone. Enormous arched entrance on Park Avenue with triple-arched window and elaborate sculpted surround; round-arched windows with elaborately sculpted surrounds; bell tower on 38th Street. No significant alterations. With its tower, gray stone facing and numerous carvings, The Church of Our Saviour, using traditional materials and a wealth of traditional style carvings throughout the design, makes a handsome but appropriately restrained impression on the corner of Park Avenue and 38th Street.
